How to find us

The Apple Tree Centre is located next to the historical village of Ifield on the outskirts of Crawley New Town, within close proximity to Gatwick Airport, providing excellent transport links to London. The town is very well served by all major forms of transport including motorway, rail, bus, coach and air.

The Apple Tree Centre has its own car park with room for 250 vehicles, so parking is never going to be a challenge for your guests. It's also easy to reach using public transport; it is close to Crawley town centre with the nearest train station just a short bus ride away.

Designed with accessibility in mind, the Apple Tree Centre is accessible to the whole community, including people using wheelchairs and those with limited mobility.

The centre has its own landscaped gardens for colleagues, friends and family to enjoy.
